

Traditional vs HSA-Qualified Health Insurance

2020 Contribution Limits: Single $3,550, Family $7,100 (plus catch-up Age 55 $1,000)

2021 Contribution Limits: Single $3,600, Family $7,200 (plus catch-up Age 55 $1,000)

Medicare Part B premiums, Part D Drug plans, Medicare Advantage plans - not medicare supp.
This is brief overview of differences between traditional and HSA health plans. Insurance contract and policy limits will be different than above example based on your plan selection and related network. This is not considered to be tax advice.*